

ANTIOQUÍA INCA TRAIL

TREKKING: Basic / Intermediate
Altitude: 4.500 ft. (1.500 m)
Season between May and November

Close from Lima, 2 hours driving to the Andes is located the Antioquia village, place that in ancient times was a point of passage of the pilgrims on their road to Pachacámac temple. This tour leads us to a sunny zone leaving the cloudy and cold Lima city, hiking its surroundings and having the opportunity to walk by the Inca Trail. Completing the experience we will try their organic products that the communities associated in a communal enterprise are marketed in juices, jelly and vinegar.
